

Freund, Freeze & Arnold Attorney Named a 2013 Recipient of the University of Dayton Law School Alumni Association Distinguished Alumni Award

Wayne E. Waite named a 2013 recipient of the University of Dayton Law School Alumni Award

Dayton, Ohio (PRWEB) April 03, 2013 -- Freund, Freeze & Arnold, A Legal Professional Association, a Dayton, Ohio-based law firm, is pleased to announce that Wayne E. Waite has been named the 2013 recipient of the University of Dayton Law School Alumni Association Distinguished Alumni Award. The award recipient demonstrates a sustained dedication to the values of justice, ethics and integrity through distinguished professional accomplishments. The award will be presented by Dean McGreal on Saturday, June 8th at the Alumni Dinner at the Law School.

Waite has a wide and complex law practice ranging from the defense of medical professionals, to advising large and small businesses on risk management and liability avoidance, to helping individuals navigate the difficulties of failed marriages.

In addition to his successful legal career, Waite dedicates his time to helping others in Honduras through Shoulder to Shoulder, a private, non-profit, non-governmental entity he incorporated and for which he serves as President since its inception in 1996. Shoulder to Shoulder, (shouldertoshoulder.org) works in tandem with a local Honduran grass-roots, community based non-profit to achieve a single mission: to develop educational and health programs to help poor rural communities in Honduras achieve sustainable development and improve the overall health and well-being of its residents. Shoulder to Shoulder operates two small hospitals and ten remote medical centers, providing primary medical care to more than 35,000 patients many who live in extreme poverty below the one dollar per person criteria set by the United Nations. Last year Waite traveled to Honduras four times and has been instrumental in partnering Shoulder to Shoulder with the Honduran government, the Dayton based Mathile Institute for the Advancement of Human Nutrition and more than 10 universities in the United States to replicate its model in other rural areas.
