

Travel Assistance Program

Protection You Can Take With You When Away From Home

What if I.....

- Forget my prescription medication while traveling?
- Become sick or injured while I'm traveling?
- Lose my passport?
- Need a physician referral during my holiday?

Your Travel Assistance Program can help!

What is Travel Assistance?

Travel Assistance is an invaluable service that is provided and administered by AXA Assistance USA, Inc. This program offers you, your domestic partner and dependents travel and medical services, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. With one quick toll-free phone call, you will receive assistance in obtaining the help you need through more than 40,000 pre-qualified providers worldwide.

Before you travel, you can obtain information about your visa, passport, inoculation requirements and local customs. You can also obtain 24-hour pre-departure information on weather, currency or holidays through the toll free number.
